THE KEY DIRECTIONS

FOR A/W 2024 YARNS

Unusual animal fibers,
undyed color palettes and wild pelts
inspire new developments for colder months.

NATURAL PALETTE

The natural palette of undyed fur is being embraced by mills who find it fits perfectly with the eco-conscious consumer, one who already leans towards wearing neutrals.

M.ORO UNDYED CASHMERE

For years sheep were prized for their white fleece and it's ability to dye easily, however now special breeds and colours are once again being bred and cultivated for their unusual natural colour range to target the high-end consumer, especially popular on the west coast of the USA.

LUXE EYELASH

While often presented in solid matte colours we love the versions that mimic the variegated shades of true fur for a more luxury look.
